

MORAL EMOTIONS

– A SEMINAR WITH ANTHONY STEINBOCK

Time: Friday, 8th of February 2013 at 12 am.

Location: Helsinki Collegium for Advanced Studies (Seminar room 136, Fabianinkatu 24)

Organized by the research project European Rationality in the Break from Modernity (Academy of Finland, HCAS)

PROGRAM

12:15–13:45 Moral Emotions: Plenary Session

Anthony Steinbock (Southern Illinois University of Carbondale):

Humility as a Moral Emotion and its relation to Pride

13:45–14:15 Coffee

14:15–16:00 Emotions, Empathy and Tragedy

Sara Heinämaa (University of Helsinki): Generosity and Wonder: Two Future-Oriented Emotions

Joonas Taipale (University of Copenhagen): Husserl and the Context of Empathy

Ulrika Björk (Uppsala University): Reconciliation and Tragic Pleasure: Reading the Poetics with Arendt and Ricoeur

* * *

NB. Professor Steinbock is also acting as the opponent at the public examination of Timo Miettinen's doctoral dissertation The Idea of Husserl's Phenomenology: A Study in Generativity and Historicity on the 9th of February, 2013 at the Arppeneaum Auditorium (Snellmaninkatu 3). The examination begins at 10 am and it is open for all.

For further information, please contact Timo Miettinen (timo.pa.miettinen@helsinki.fi).